Dear Berea Friendship United Methodist Church.

WOW! Your ladies sure are generous! The bounty of supplies donated by all of you filled my trunk. Wednesday morning it was exciting peeking into each bag to see what a surprise supply was waiting to be discovered. Mrs. Mills, Social Work secretary, and I had a fun that morning going through the many bags and pulling out the various items. You would have thought we were going back to school. Later in the day, school social workers arrived clutching backpacks, wielding school supply lists and perusing the bounty. By days end, many of the supplies were already distributed to needy students.

The donation could not have come at a more perfect time. We already had pending requests with more coming in with each phone call. Your donation provided many of the supplies that we were either out of or about to be. It is satisfying to have on hand what a child needs for a good school start.

Thank you for allowing me to share a meal with you. The variety of food was WAY too tempting. The School Social Work Department feels privileged to be the recipient of the many school supplies from Berea Friendship UMC.

Appreciatively,
 Kathy Barbee, LMSW
