A Shared Ministry

What a month! October came and went at breakneck speed and we now find ourselves at the start of November, contemplating the fact that holiday celebrations are just around the corner. With the coming of November, I am moving away from being the “new” pastor of Berea Friendship to being simply “the pastor.” I thank you all for the warm welcome I have received as I moved from Furman to your church community. I have experienced many acts of kindness in these days of transition and I am already feeling right at home.

I want to say a special word of appreciation to our youth. They worked hard to help me move A LOT of boxes to my office, and all in the rain! The Taylor's helped to organize this effort and this youth project saved us some moving expenses. Thank you!

The past month has been a busy one for me as I have gone from house to house to become more acquainted with our people and our community. I want to thank Pat Teat for setting up visitation appointments for me. She has been a real asset as I've settled in. If you desire a visit or if you know of someone who would appreciate a pastoral visit, please let Pat know and she will add you to my list.

Soon we will be preparing for our ministry initiatives for next year as we get ready for our Charge Conference on November 5 at 7:00 p.m. As I came for my introductory visit with the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, one member asked the question, “What can we do to help you?” My answer was, “Be willing to say yes to ministry opportunities when they arise.”

As we prepare for our ministry next year, my plea is the same. As we seek to name church officers and ministry leaders, let us all give ourselves to the ministry of Jesus Christ through Berea Friendship. A church is strongest when everyone is willing to contribute to the shared mission of the community. I am delighted to have been called upon to share in the ministry of this church. I trust that you will find delight in your ministry here, too. As we work together we trust that God will open new opportunities for our church to flourish. A good place to begin, I believe, is by spending time together asking God's guidance as we seek to discern our particular calling for this time and place. Every day I walk out of my office and pass those large pictures filled with folk (some of you) who came to this property many years ago and started a church. They were motivated by a sense that God was calling them to make a difference in this part of town as they formed a faith community. It is my firm belief that God is still calling us to make a difference!

So on behalf of Susan, Rebecca, Jonathan, and Elizabeth (and Jazzy, our miniature dachshund and Lily, our shih tzu), thanks for the warm welcome. Now let us work together to strengthen the ministry of Berea Friendship United Methodist Church, not for our own glory but for the glory of Jesus Christ!

Grace and peace,

Keith D. Ray II

Health and Welfare

Pick & Choose and You Can't Lose

Armed with knowledge about making healthy selections for restaurant menus, you can satisfy both your taste buds and your appetite without significantly compromising a healthful diet. Many dining establishments offer options that are low in saturated fat, trans fats, and cholesterol. This is good news because too much saturated fat, trans fat, cholesterol, and sodium can increase the risk for cardiovascular disease, stroke, some cancers, and high blood pressure.

Simple Tips for Making Healthy Choices:

Consider the following recommendations from the American Heart Association for making healthy choices when dining out.

- Fried, au gratin, crispy, escaloped, pan-fried, sautéed, or stuffed foods are high in fat and calories. Instead, look for steamed, broiled, baked, grilled, poached, or roasted foods.
- Have gravy, sauces, and dressings served on the side, so you can control the amount you eat or skip them completely.
- Even if they are not on the dessert menu, many restaurants can serve fruit or sherbet instead of high-fat pastries and ice cream.
- Drink water, juice, or non-fat or low-fat milk instead of high-calorie soda and milkshakes.

Smarter Selections

Breakfast Choose fresh fruit and whole grains rather than breakfast meats, which can be high in saturated fat and baked goods, which can be high in trans fats.

Chinese— Choose steamed rice, entrees that include many vegetables, and boiled, broiled or steamed entrees. Avoid egg rolls, fried wontons, fried meats, and fried rice.

Steakhouse—Opt for lean cuts of meat, fish, steamed vegetables, baked potato or rice, and green salad with dressing on the side, rather than fatty cuts of meat, french fried or scalloped potatoes, and Caesar salad.

Italian—Choose pasta primavera, pasta with marinara sauce, and marsala disher. Avoid fried calamari, cheese-gilled pastas, or pasta with cream sauce.

Mexican—Skip the fried tortilla chips. Eat grilled shrimp or chicken, corn tortillas, salsa, and a taco or fajita salad (but not the fried shell) with low-fat sour cream. Avoid flour tortillas, nachos, refried beans, chalupas, and tacos.

A Weighty Matter

- According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, being overweight or obese increases the risk of many diseases and health conditions including high blood pressure, osteoarthritis, high total cholesterol, type 2 diabetes, coronary heart disease, stroke, some cancers and sleep apnea. Eating appropriate portions is an integral component to maintaining a healthy weight. To make an effort to eat smaller portions, consider the following recommendations.
  - Request small portions from your server upon ordering
  - Share a meal with another person
- Take one-half of your entrée home to eat another time.

For more information about healthy eating and a healthy lifestyle, call the Life center at 864-455-4231 or online to ghs.org.

Church News

From the Music Director to the Congregation:

In this day of increasing costs it takes around $50. to buy one new anthem for our choir. With the other associated annual expenses and the cost of buying music, the budget, which we have kept at or below the 2006 level for the past two years, is very tight. Some churches have found they can stretch the music budget by asking for individual gifts to purchase new music in honor of living persons or families in the church, or in memory of someone who has passed on.

We are buying new music for the Christmas Season now. Your contribution to honor someone with a gift dedicated to this purpose would be very much appreciated, and "the gift by _____ in honor/memory of _____", will be duly noted on the Sunday that the music is sung. Thanks for your consideration of this opportunity.

BLUE RIDGE HIGH SCHOOL CORPS OF CADETS ANNUAL FRUIT SALE

The Blue Ridge High School Corps of Cadets is sponsoring its Annual Fruit Sale; orders will be taken through November 7th. The band has performed very well this year, winning first place in two competitions, and second place in the Upper State Marching Band Championships. Their next performance will be the SC State Marching Championships on November 1, they will travel to the Georgia Dome to compete against 60 bands from across the Southeast at the bands of America Regional competition. The budget for the band this year is around $100,000, and the fruit sale is their major fund-raiser. Please see Denise McCloud if you would like to order some delicious Riversweet fruit for the Christmas season: the orders will be delivered around December 5th. Thank you for your support! Terri McCloud

Veterans Day Celebration

Berea High School will sponsor its annual program honoring veterans and their families in our community. Please help us get the word to veterans in your congregation by sharing the information below. Veterans, their families, and their friends are cordially invited. Thank you so much. Please contact Brenda Benton at 355-1623 if you have any questions.

HONORING ALL WHO SERVED

Veterans and Their Families At The Eighth Annual Veterans Day Celebration.

Program and Reception is Tuesday, November 11, 2008, at Two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon in Berea High School Auditorium. All members of the community are invited and urged to attend as is the faculty and students of Berea High School honor our veterans and their families.

Fall Festival Work Pays Off

Our Fall Festival was a great success due to the following:

- Ron, Vicki, and Anne-Marie Failor for their long hours and hard work for the garage sale.
- Tom and Debbie Smith, Dub and Mary Childs for their long hours and hard work in the kitchen.
- Those good natured folks who host booths every year - Ellen Holman, John and Marsha Disher, Jim and Margaret Rawson, Mary Childs, the Youth, Shannon Finley and the talented CDC ladies, Jayne Ferrer, Henry and Becky Philpot, and Laura Gould and Patty Bowers. Debbie Capps secured the clown and balloon magician.
- Donations were made by The Huckaby Class, The New Friends Class, Patty Bowers, Debbie Gissendanner, Tom and Debbie Smith, Mike Hovious and The Quilters.
- Other good natured folks who saw the need and chipped in wherever, Nancy Neal, Miller and Bobbie Bogan, Bobby and Patti Taylor, Kathleen Griffin, Alex Smith, Matt Greer, Steve and Debbie Capps, John Ferrer and Aubrey, Lisa Huffman, Jan Smith, Susan Bates, Andi Nichols, and Janet Stone.
- The themed baskets makers - Janet Stone, Laura Gould, The New Friends Class, and The Friendship Class.
- The cake makers - Dot Nichols, Blanche Creswell, Georgiana Dougherty, Rachel Palmer, Vivian Day, Debbie Capps, Becky Philpot and Ellen Holman.
- Garl Revis and Georgiana Dougherty, who sell tickets every year.
- People who showed their support by stopping by for breakfast, lunch and dinner - Norman Penland, Alex Philpot, Blanche Creswell, Jim Durham, Junior and Nancy Neal, Keith Ray, Nick and Dot Nichols, Bob and Donna Helms, Bill and Pat Teat, Laura Gould and Charles, Susan Baird, Jim and Margaret Rawson, James Ferrer and Sara and many I didn't see.
- The Ladies from Beaddazzled while not contributing to the funds raised, certainly enabled the ladies to get together and have a good time in addition to making one-of-a-kind jewelry. During my time at Berea Friendship, I've never spoken directly with Heather Philpot. We made a connection during the Beading Party. This is what Missions and Evangelism is all about!

The Garage Sale alone raised $879!!! Combining this with the proceeds from breakfast, lunch, and dinner, the movie, the basket raffle, ticket sales, and donations, we raised over $1450!!!!!! Congratulations to everyone for a job well done!

Lisa
